for millennia the sages of the past have claimed that the world is maya or illusion neo sufi philosophy discusses the precise set of mechanisms through which the artifact of the separate self arises and is perpetuated it shows that there are two outst

paul shepard has been one of the most brilliant and original thinkers in the field of human evolution and ecology for more than forty years his thought provoking ideas on the role of animals in human thought dreams personal identity and other psychological and religious contexts have been presented in a series of seminal writings including thinking animals the tender carnivore and the sacred game and now the others his most eloquent book to date the others is a fascinating and wide ranging examination of how diverse cultures have thought about reacted to and interacted with animals shepard argues that humans evolved watching other animal species participating in their world suffering them as parasites wearing their feathers and skins and making tools of their bones and antlers for millennia we have communicated their significance by dancing sculpting performing imaging narrating and thinking them the human species cannot be fully itself without these others shepard considers animals as others in a world where otherness of all kinds is in danger and in which otherness is essential to the discovery of the true self we must understand what to make of our encounters with animals because as we prosper they vanish and ultimately our prosperity may amount to nothing without them
